LIBERANNI
1964

Published by the Student Council of
FRANKLIN CENTRAL SCHOOL
Franklin, New York

Foreword

The 1964 Liberanni is completed... the staff closes its books on hours of tedious work, work, work. One may ask, why with all this work and very little fun, these students and their advisors would even bother with such a publication. The answer, in fact, lies with the very basis for a yearbook. That is, a yearbook is an account of daily student life. It tells of his work, his play, and his various activities. It is a description of both physical and mental endeavor. It is a record - a record that he will treasure in the future as a reminder of his adolescence - the period in which each human being develops his own individuality.

Pat's has become an institution in our town, a favorite meeting place for students.

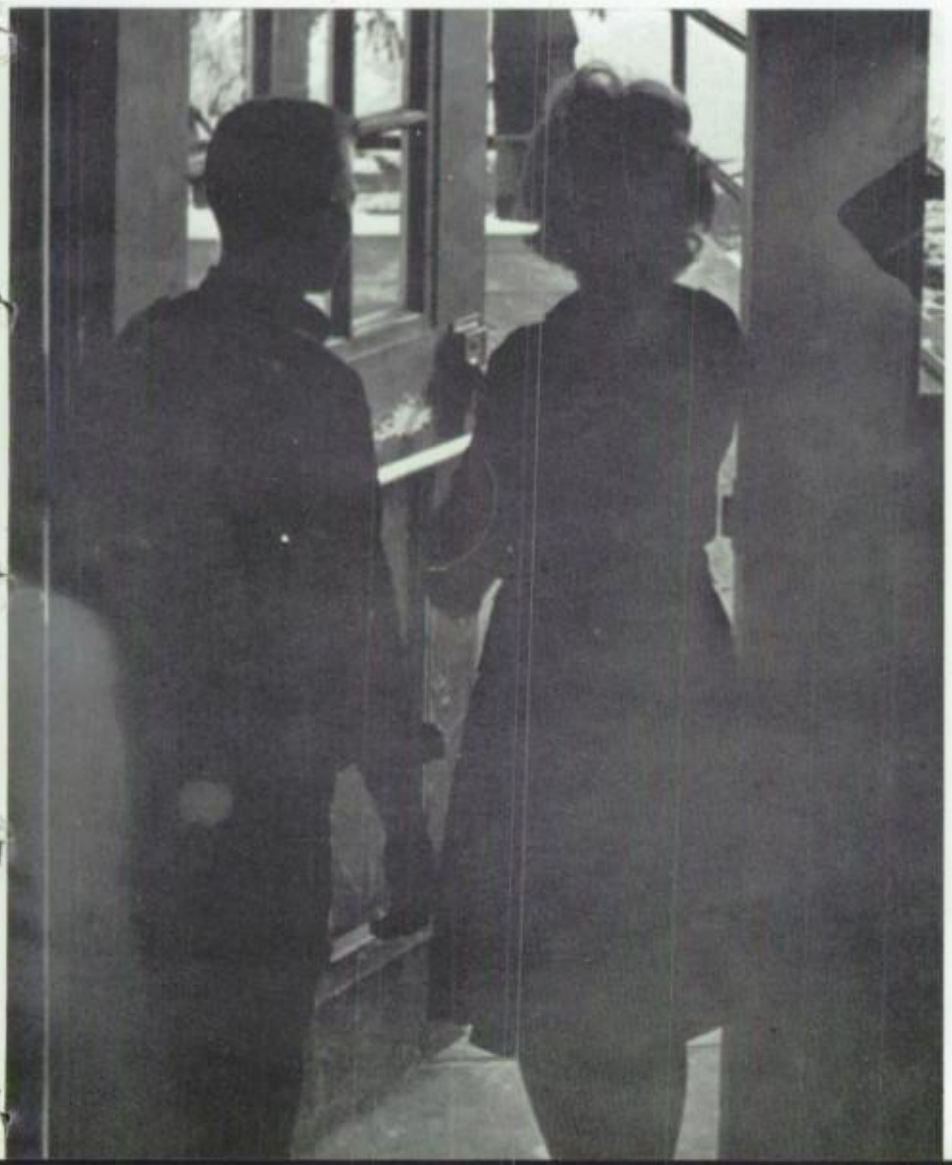
David and Sherrie stand guard at the fine pool provided through voluntary community effort.

The students of Franklin would like to repay a debt. We are greatly indebted to the people of Franklin - Our Town. This debt extends into the past; the rich heritage that has been cultivated so painstakingly. It looks into the future and prepares us to meet its challenges.

This school building and the facilities it offers, provided by this community - our language lab, as modern as any in the area; excellent equipment for art, music and shop courses; a well supplied and growing library . . .

Beyond the walls of the school the village offers us ample opportunity for recreation, worship and service - Scouts, youth fellowships, library etc., extend our education and broadens our horizons.

A congenial spirit among students faculty, and townspeople characterizes Franklin.



Our students leave school, confident they are prepared to cope with the problems of today's world.

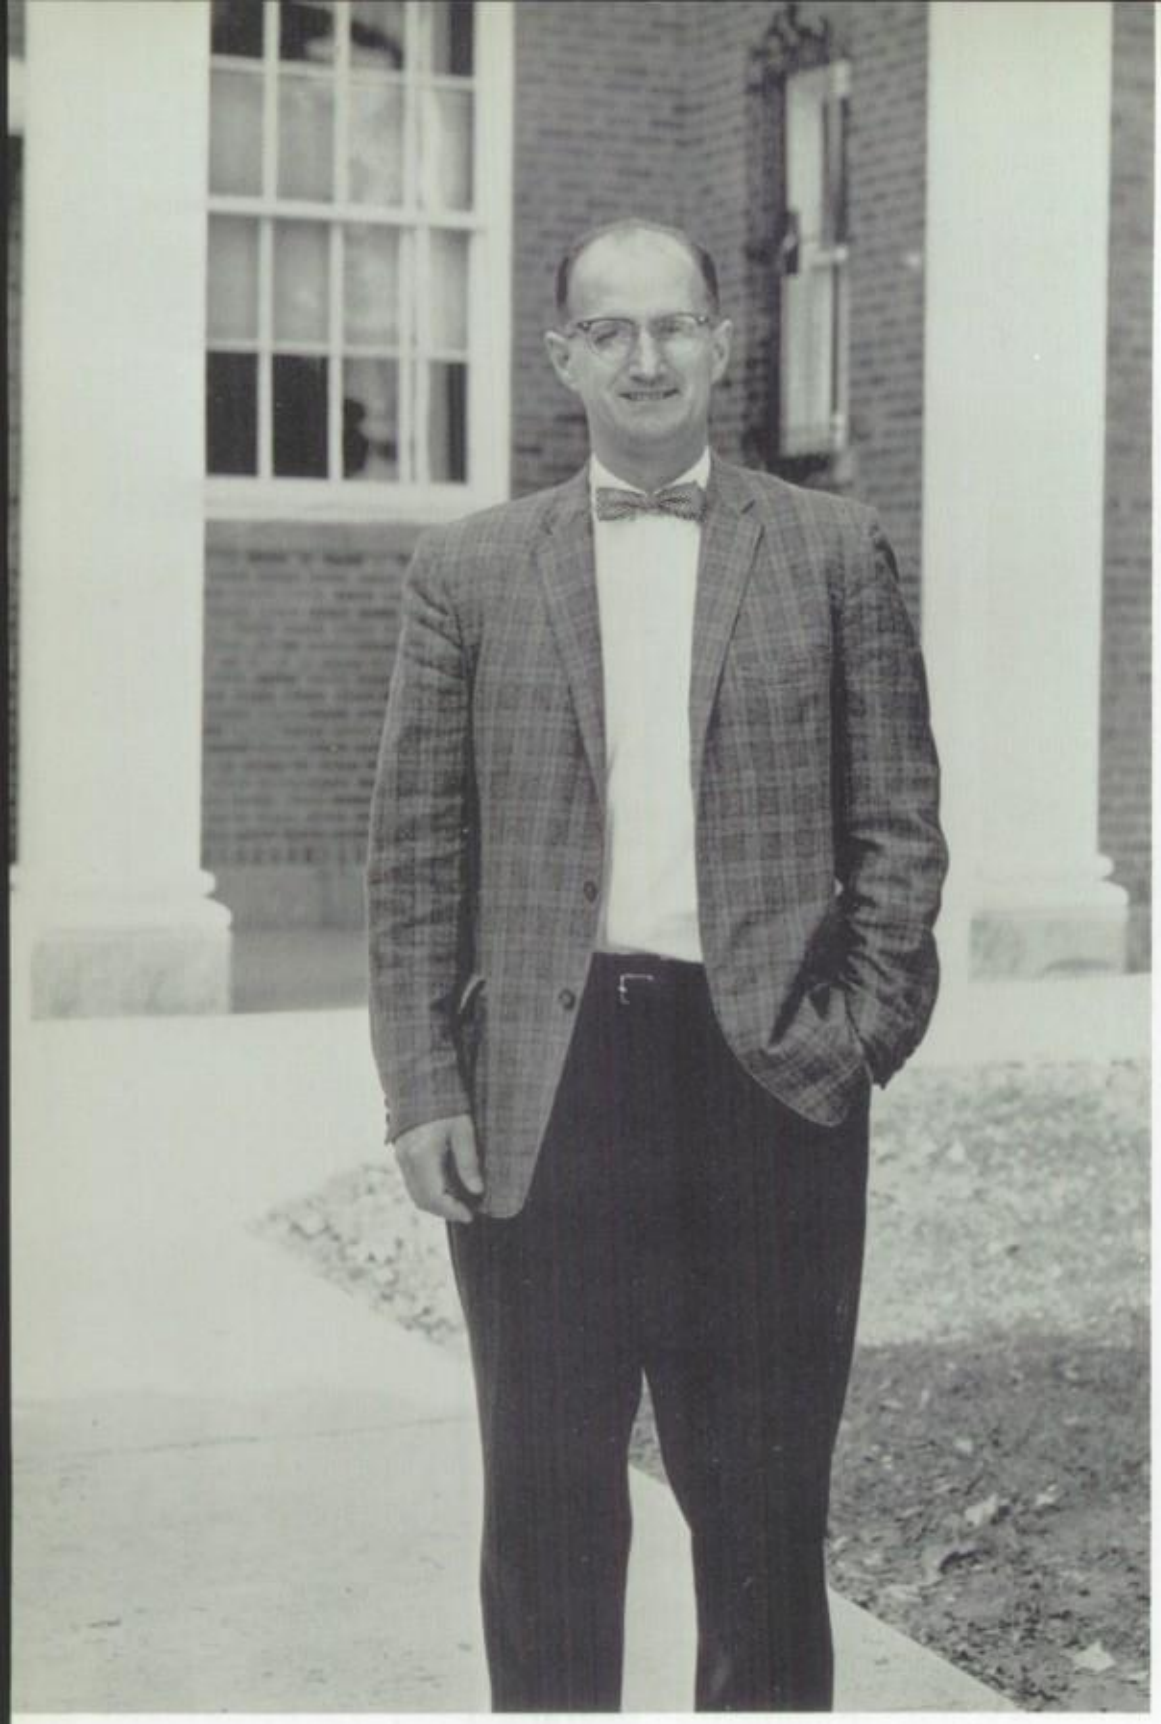
Commission



To Our New Principal a Welcome

We, the Liberanni staff of 1964, extend a warm and cordial welcome to Mr. Herbert Y. Arnold, Franklin Central School's new principal.

Mr. Arnold will have the full support of the student body and the faculty in making the school better than ever, and we wish him well in his future years at D.L.I.

In Reply . . . Some Sage Advice

To the Senior Class:

Graduation--an ending or a beginning?

To take your place in this rapidly changing space age, you are challenged to make the very best use of your education. All of you will not fly to the moon, but each of you should make his contribution to his country's success. Never underestimate your worth. Always do your best, willingly and conscientiously.

For each of you I wish a successful future, peace and happiness.

FIRST ROW: Mr. Merril, Mr. Hanson, Mr. Mills, Mr. Downs.
SECOND ROW: Mr. Conant, Mr. Hillis, Mr. Arnold, Mr. Law.

Board of Education

Pictured on this page are the citizens of Our Town who are most directly responsible for providing a continuing high standard for our school. We are indebted to these gentlemen for their dedication in our behalf.

Table of Contents

In Kindergarten we attempt to guide the youngsters to think about and live according to democratic principles. We try to avoid hurting others, and to learn self control in group situations. Youngsters are encouraged to face problems and to learn how to carry out plans. Emphasis is placed upon developing a greater awareness of his surroundings.

Grade 1

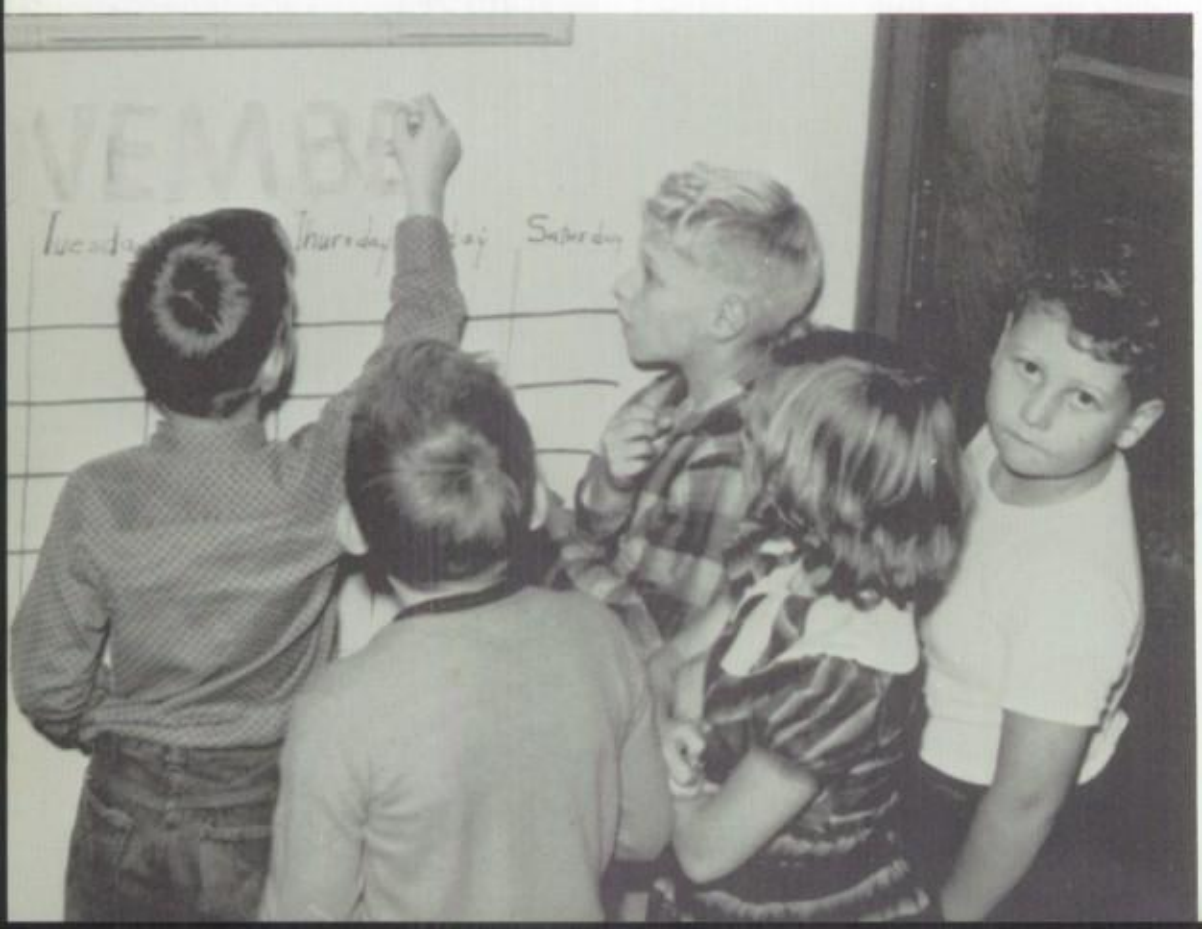
The first year of formal school has in it the forming of good work habits and the beginning of all subjects that will be further developed during the remaining years of school.

First graders learn to add, subtract, count, and learn the name and sounds of letters. Reading is their favorite subject. Each child and parent is surprised when they realize how well he reads.

In the spring we had a special show for the kindergarteners. This was an exciting day for us.

FIRST ROW: Douglas Ackley, Randy Yetman, Richie Schmitz, Frank Walker, Timothy Woodard, Matthew Terry, Edward Walley, Mrs. Kathmann, Richard Brower, James Costigan, James Budine, Charlene Schultz, Janet Nydam, Karen Hughes, Patti Cook, Jean Hall, Karen McMillen, Sharon Bonker. ABSENT: Ricky Kingsbury.

Grade 1



Important steps in our first grade reading have been the ability to associate pictures with the text and to read sentences with understanding. Numbers have been given more meaning by visual aids and concrete experiences. Several field trips were taken to learn of the world around us. One trip was to the Oneonta Fire Department.

Muscle co-ordination is also improved by active dances, finger plays, and scissor manipulations.

In the second grade we aim to help each child to grow in accomplishments and development according to his or her abilities and needs. Our most important aim is to further develop the child's reading ability.

We build a better concept of numbers by learning the basic facts of addition and subtraction.

Social Studies and Science are studied to enable second graders to better understand our dependency on the world they live in.

Grade 2

FIRST ROW: Breck Tarbell, Michael Milewski, Mark Laing, David MacRabie, Daniel Serrao, Daniel Westcott, Lonnie Seaman, Randy Hebbard, Larry Boening, Daniel Nightingale. ABSENT: William Mottle, Gary Schriver.

Grade 3

Third Grade children have reached a level in their "growing up" where they can begin learning to work more independently. This is one of the main objectives in this grade.

In citizenship, the emphasis is on modern living in the United States, with glimpses into other countries and the past, by way of comparison.

We have put on at least one assembly program and taken a trip or two in connection with our work.

Fourth grade is a continuation from the previous grades of learning - subject matter, getting along with others, accepting responsibilities, and becoming a good citizen.

FRONT ROW: Wayne Boyles, Jack Hughes, David Groat, Randal Schmitz, Robert Dewey, Mark Bonker, William Heaney, Edwin Nydam, Scott Noble, Kenneth Stalter, James Collison, Jack Lockwood, Ronald Edwards, Eric Burgin, Bruce Tarbell, Richard Robinson. SECOND ROW: Jon Terry, David Terry, Daniel Robinson, Richard Groat, Douglas Brower, Timothy Robinson, Everett Houck, Austin Wormuth, Gary Scofield, John Hyzer, Mr. Nightingale. ABSENT: Edward Robinson.

Grade 4 and 5

Our room was busy with the three "R's"--and a little more.

Oscar, the snake, and the other animals were good friends while they were with us. We planned for a terrarium for each of us--green gardens are fun to watch in the winter time.

We collected for the Junior Red Cross, worked on the class play, polished our manners, and GREW.

Grade 5

To make our regular classes more interesting we do projects which correlate our subjects. One of these has been a table project of New Amsterdam.

At the Farmers' Museum in Cooperstown we learned of pioneer days.

Each marking period we elect officers which enables us to learn how to conduct business meetings.

Grade 6

This year the Sixth Grade has studied about the European and Asiatic countries. Several members of the class have made charts and booklets on these countries. Some of the class chose the country that their ancestors came from for their special booklet.

The class enjoyed a field trip to WDOS and the Star in connection with science.

Fractions have been the special target in arithmetic as the class learned how to multiply and divide them this year. They also learned how to add, subtract, multiply and divide fractions.

The special aim of the sixth grade has been to develop good study habits before they go upstairs to junior high next year.

"A SUMMER IN GERMANY"

Walter and I left the States at Idlewild Airport on June 22. We flew by Pan American Airways both ways. The trip over took 6 1/2 hours but we had a 2 hour delay in Amsterdam because of engine trouble. We were transferred to a K L M clipper. Flying at 1500 feet we were able to see the landscaping with each river, forest, town or city placed with great care.

While in Germany we stayed with my grandmother and aunt. They live in Essen, the fourth largest city in Western Germany. Its population is 698, 925 and is located in northern Germany. This is where Krupp had his start.

We spent two weeks on the island of Spiekroog in the North Sea. This was strictly a resort island and it provided the chief income of the islanders. No cars were on the island, just a handful of red brick cottages and sand dunes; it was really a wonderful place to relax!

We also went to Austria for ten days and saw snow fall in August! The mountains of Austria are really as beautiful as all the pictures show!

On August 31 we came home after a summer of swimming, shopping, and sightseeing! It was a very rewarding experience but it was great being back in the Empire State!

The football squad showed a lot of spirit and hustle during the '63 season. The Purple Devils compiled a record of one win, two ties and three losses. A fine season is planned next year with the return of all but one player, senior George Fowlson. The team finished in a tie for second place in the league due to such mainstays as Capt. Ralph Sitts, Taylor, Mills and Drayton.

Put it "over the fence," Ralph!

Liberanni

The clicking of typewriter keys, the flashing of electronic eyes, and the murmur of busy people signify to others that the yearbook staff is once again hard at work putting together an increasingly better Liberanni. This year, the twenty-six members of the Liberanni staff are all striving toward a higher standard of excellence. The constant threat of an ever-approaching deadline keeps the staff and advisors hopping. Mountains of work which cannot be done during the regular Liberanni period are finished at after-school or Saturday morning work meetings.

Purple and Gold

The Purple and Gold is a monthly newspaper which features the activities of the student body. It presents opinions and promotes the literary achievements of the students. A highlight of the Purple and Gold year was the big Senior Issue published in the Spring. Serving as editor was Pat Stuchala. Assisting were Candy Marquart, Business Manager, Circulation Manager, Kathy Taggart, and Art Editor, Barbara Daniels.

The Student Council has been active in promoting various school functions. A dance, refreshments at football games, and the Halloween party were organized by the council. Exerting leadership to promote harmony in the school has been the basic purpose of the organization.

Leaders Club

"We, the members of the Girl's Leaders Club of Franklin Central School, have joined together to represent, through this club, the girls of this school; and in the physical education department, to encourage leadership and good sportsmanship. We believe that through our organization we can better our school and community."

Club Constitution

The Varsity Club had a new advisor this year, the athletic director, Mr. Dunlap.

At the present time the club boasts a total of nineteen members. Three of these will be lost at graduation.

The treasury has been trippled through various money making projects.

T.T.C.

The T. T. C. Sorority has been very busy this year.

Last fall, they prepared a Thanksgiving basket for a needy family. The girls donated food and clothing for the basket. Also, the T. T. C. girls brought cheer to some older people in other communities by decorating two nursing homes and singing carols during the Christmas season.

These excited students are learning the basics of wrestling. The expression on their faces shows how anxious they are to have a go with Coach Dunlap.

Marching Band

The Band year, started off with a rousing victory at Binghamton, under the leadership of the new director, Mr. Kundreskas. The Binghamton Parade rounded out the marching season and the band was soon in concert form. Many pieces with English origin were featured at the Spring Concert. As usual, the dinner dance sponsored by the band was a highlight of the season enjoyed by the community as a whole.

Grade Chorus

Our Grade Choir is composed of 60 students from grades four, five, and six, who meet once a week to learn the fundamentals of group singing and to have fun with music. We work primarily on folk tunes, Broadway hits, novelty numbers and some old favorites. Our most serious endeavors are the preparation of numbers for the spring concert and for Moving-Up Day.
